

Please consider the wisdom of allowing Sinclair Broadcasting to force their stations to air this anti-Kerry documentary.

Last spring when Sinclair refused to allow its ABC affiliates to carry the Nightline episode that honored soldiers who had been killed in Iraq, it performed a profound disservice to those soldiers, their families and every American. Now Sinclair is going further with its partisan agenda.

Sinclair is obligated to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

We need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you.
